

Avaya Spaces Immersive Meetings & Team Collaboration

In today's digital workplace, we're all doing things a bit differently. And we love the tools that make it easy, that streamline our day and help pull it all together. Work is increasingly unplanned. Decisions need to be made in a constantly changing environment. Avaya Spaces is there to pull it all together. Create a project space, check in anytime, converse from anywhere. Debate, brainstorm, align, update; get the clarity, excitement, and empathy that's possible when you meet face to face.

- Always-On, Immersive Collaboration — Meet the challenges of an unpredictable, work-from-anywhere world with continuous, multiexperience collaboration.
- Video Meetings and Conferencing — Spend less time meeting and more time solving. Get to better decisions and outcomes faster, with HD video conferencing and web collaboration.

- A Better Way to Work — Keep everyone in the loop with video, voice, messaging and more. Enable teams to seamlessly communicate, share information and solve problems with everyone and everything in contextual virtual rooms.
- Empower Employees — Meet unplanned, fluid work head on. Give your employees an always-on place to meet and work through challenges together, planned or in the moment.
- Any Device, Any Location, Any Mode — Talk to anyone at any time and from any device. Extend to video room systems for even better big screen experiences.
- Embrace Simplicity — Give your app-savvy workers everything they need to collaborate in a single simple, low monthly cost cloud app.

Get protection to help keep out hackers and the information you share safe and secure.

While what happens in the meeting is important, so is what happens before and after. Use Avaya Spaces to track deliverables and keep tabs on what's urgent. When someone sends a message, attaches a document, assigns a task, shares an image, a recording, or a link, it's all organized in the team Space, a record of everyone's contributions. Always on, continuously available; as one team member ends their day, another one can pick up the thread with Avaya Spaces.

Rely on Avaya Spaces to boost relationships and build communities. And when you need to go from the virtual room to the physical room, take Avaya Spaces with you. Connect it to the cloud apps and technologies you use today, and the new ones you'll be using tomorrow, along with APIs to build the workflow you need. Get protection to help keep out hackers and the information you share safe and secure. And to collaborate with people outside your organization, just send them a link.
